

KLove radio is an inspiration daily to my household! It shares community happenings that link our area churches together. The positive music and encouraging words from the workers there provide a place of refuge from foul language, partisan politics, and attacks on our morals and values that other stations share. KLove should continue to air their program in our community because it brings hope and smiles to those who listen.